

CINCINNATI CHAPTER OF THE CPCU SOCIETY
ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

The Cincinnati Chapter of the CPCU Society (Chartered Property Casualty Underwriters) Announced the 3 winners of its annual Jim Boutross Scholarship Award Program.

Billy D. Guy, Jr. of Martinsville IN and Jennifer Lynn Gray of Indianapolis IN are both Seniors at Indiana State University, majoring in Insurance and Risk Management.

Matthew D. Sharp of West Chester OH is a Senior at Wittenberg University majoring in Mathematics.

Sharp is a second year recipient of the Jim Boutross Scholarship. Award recipients must Have a major or minor in an insurance-related field with the intent of pursuing a career In the insurance industry. Judges from the Cincinnati Chapter review each application Based on criteria of Financial need, Academic Achievement, Extracurricular activities, A connection to the Cincinnati community.

The $1000 each Scholarship's from the Cincinnati Chapter receive matching grants from The CPCU National Society's Loman Foundation, making each recipient an award of $2000 total.

Recipients will be recognized by Chapter members November 11 at the Sharonville Convention Center.